Dear Sir/Madam,

You may be aware that the Quality Council of India (QCI) have formed National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Health care providers [NABH]. The NABH is constituent Board of QCI, set up with co-operation of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India and Indian Health Industry. The standards formulated by NABH [QCI] provide framework for Quality Assurance and Quality Improvement for hospitals, focus on patient safety and quality of patient care.

As you are aware that Central Govt. has launched NRHM programme to improve the health services so as to reach the maximum number of rural population, which have been neglected for long. Both the Centre and State government are keen that NRHM scheme is effective and reaches to the desired group of people.

To improve the functioning of hospitals and other health care organizations, number of state government have signed a MoU with Quality Council of India [QCI] for consultancy services, so as to improve the health care delivery in the respective states.

Academy of Hospital Administration [AHA] is a professional and not for profit body of health and Hospital Administrators registered under the society registration act 1860. In order to facilitate the process of smooth accreditation of hospitals it is essential to train a large number of doctors, nurses etc. in the process of quality management of health facilities. The programme fulfils specific needs of health administrators and clinicians in health care organizations who are keen to participate in the introduction of quality management system in their organization. It will also be of immense benefit to those currently appointed as heads of departments and engaged in clinico-administrative duties.

Academy of Hospital Administration (AHA) has launched six months course in Six months Distance Learning Programme (Two contact programme for 7 days each) PG Certificate in Quality Management & Accreditation of Health Care Organization [QM&AHO], w.e.f. Jan 2007 through distance learning.
